Loan Request from Gordon Companies

James Antkowiak and Robert Deemer presented the Loan Committee report regarding the request for assistance from Gordon Companies. After discussion and deliberation regarding the loan request and security for said loan, including the requirement for a life insurance policy on David Gordon naming the CEDC as beneficiary, the following motions were presented:

Motion by: James Antkowiak
Seconded by: John Redman
Motion: To require a modification to the existing first mortgage the CEDC holds on property owned by David Gordon at 2669 Union, Cheektowaga, New York, which serves as collateral security for a previous business loan made to Gordon Companies, Inc., to cover the loan currently requested by Mr. Gordon in place of requiring a life insurance policy.
